Dear Mr. Dulles:

Mrs. Luce has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of February 27, and the wonderful assortment of books on Brazil which you sent - all of which have since arrived. She is very grateful for your kindness and your so prompt attention to her lack of reading material on this subject.

I know she will be writing, or calling, you herself shortly. In the meantime, she wanted you to know that all listed in your letter have arrived, and to find out if there is any urgency in their return. Perhaps your secretary could drop me a line about this.

Again, thank you for your generous response.

Sincerely yours,

Frances E. Gill
